With the number of exploitable browser vulnerabilities accelerating this year,

72% of 685 say this is making security difficult for their organization, more than any other issue.

82% of organizations were hit by cyber-attacks in the last 12 months.

84% agree that modern threats have made traditional anti-virus security suites less effective.

Ransomware the most disruptive threat, more so than APTs.